EXCELPOINT STRENGTHENS ITS POSITION WITH THE DISTRIBUTION OF XILINX'S PRODUCTS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA

Singapore, 18 October 2018 – Main-board listed Excelpoint Technology Ltd. (“Excelpoint”) announced today that it would be expanding its distribution of Xilinx’s products into its Southeast Asian market. This partnership will strengthen both Excelpoint’s and Xilinx’s business presence in the region.

Xilinx is highly recognised for its range of ‘All Programmable FPGAs, SoCs, MPSoCs, and 3D ICs’, and is a pioneer and continuing leader in programmable technology. With Xilinx’s impressive track record in programmable technology and Excelpoint’s extensive networks in Asia Pacific, both their customers can be assured of high-quality and cost-effective solutions. Excelpoint and Xilinx can also expand further into segments, such as machine-to-machine connectivity, security and surveillance, factory automation, wireless communications, and data centres.

“Excelpoint is a well-established distribution partner in the Asia Pacific region. With their strong presence in Southeast Asia and our leading-edge FPGA technology, we believe this expanded partnership will allow us to collaborate closely on emerging markets and key focus segments like data centres, advanced machine learning and artificial intelligence. We are looking forward to harnessing market opportunities together in Southeast Asia,” said Mr. Sam Rogan, Vice President, Asia Regional Sales, Xilinx, and President, Xilinx Japan.

Mr. Albert Phuay, Chairman and Group Chief Executive Officer, Excelpoint Technology Ltd., said, “We are very pleased to expand the partnership with Xilinx, and distribute their quality products in our Southeast Asian market. With Xilinx as a market leader in programmable technology, we can develop integrated and innovative solutions to better suit our customers’ needs. This collaboration will enable us to stay ahead of the innovation curve in the global electronics and technology ecosystems.”
